More than four walls, it gives us more,
A place where dreams can reach the shore;
Where laughter echoes, friendships grow,
And little dreams begin to show.

Here, every day has something new,
A chance to learn, a chance to do;
We stumble, laugh, we try again,
And turn our losses into wins.

The halls may hear our loudest cheer,
Our whispered plans, our growing fears;
They watch us change, they watch us grow,
Into the people we hope to know.

And when we leave, the walls stay still,
But what they gave us never will;
For school is more than where we've been—
It's where our next chapter begins.
